Olympian Tim Vanni

Tim won state as a junior and senior. He went on to compete internationally for Team USA, placing 4th at the Seoul Games and 5th at the Barcelona Games. Tim was a four time U.S. freestyle national champion. In five freestyle World Cup tournaments he was 2nd, 3rd (twice), 4th and 5th. Tim excels at coaching fundamental wrestling skills at all levels.

Two-Time All-American Darrell Vasquez

Darrell was the first four-time high school state champion in California history. He competed at Cal Poly from 2003 to 2007. He battled back from a serious illness and finished his career as a two-time top-six finisher at the NCAA Championships. In 2007 Darrell joined the coaching staff at Harvard University. Darrell is a master technician on the wrestling mat.

Three-Time All-American Nathan Morgan

Nathan was a three-time high school state champion. He was also a three-time Big-12 champion for Oklahoma State.
